Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that an individual holding a probationary license who has been denied an operator's license based upon the individual's operation of a vehicle involved in an accident that resulted in the injury or death of a person or total property damage of at least $750 may seek an administrative review of the denial if the individual can demonstrate that the individual was not at fault in the accident.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures: Because this bill provides for an administrative review under certain circumstances, it may add to the costs related to administrative reviews conducted by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV). The specific impact is indeterminable and will depend upon the number of such reviews. The fund affected is the Motor Vehicle Highway Account which supports the BMV.

Explanation of State Revenues: The provisions of this bill, may to some extent, expand the circumstances under which a holder of a probationary license may receive an operator's license. This may increase the number of operator's license issued. The specific impact is indeterminable. The BMV does not maintain specific data on the number of probationary licenses issued. Operator's license are issued for a four period and the fee is $10. The funds affected are the Motor Vehicle Highway Account, the State License Branch Fund which supports the operations of the State License Branches, and the Crossroads 2000 account which supports the highway bonding program created in the 1997-1999 Biennial Budget.
